

Apple iPad with Retina display

from 399 apple.com/uk
 Google's Android armies still can't beat Apple's top tab for power or appeal. The Retina iPad has the sharpest screen on Earth, with A6X chip muscle to power it and apps that make Android offerings look grotty.

SEE ME AT STAND E1

Sonos Play:5

£350 sonos.com
 As part of the Sonos drive to win the hearts and minds of more, shall we say, value-minded customers, the Play:5 represents a first step into the world of multi-room audio as part of a modular approach to building a house-filling sound system.

SEE ME AT STAND F1

TomTom Live 1005 Europe

£270 tomtom.com
 TomTom has been creating satnav devices since the things were first thought of, so it's no surprise that the Live 1005 Europe is a state-of-the-art device with Traffic HD and LIVE services included.

LaCie Thunderbolt Rugged SSD Drive

£170 lacie.com
 Not only does this solid-state drive pack a data transfer speed that would put Usain Bolt to shame, it's rugged enough to take a hit if you drop it en route to that all-important presentation.

SEE ME AT STAND H1

Monitor Audio Apex

£240 monitoraudio.co.uk
 Discreet luxury is the aim of these surround speakers – the 25cm A10 units blend into the background but the system can deliver crisply separated sounds and plaster-shaking bass. Truly cinematic – at a price scary enough for a Hollywood chiller.

SEE ME AT STAND C31

New iPod Touch

from £249 apple.com
 The world's most ubiquitous media player is arguably still the best. The latest iPod Touch features web browsing, gaming and video calling capabilities. It's easy to forget that there once was a day when iPods could only play music.

SEE ME AT STAND E61

Turtle Beach Earforce XP500

£130 turtlebeach.com
 Playing Call Of Duty online is much less fun without the ability to taunt strangers over the internet after executing a well-timed headshot. For this reason alone the XP500 headset is worth your money.

5 under £10

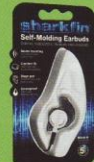

Belkin Rockstar
 £9.99 belkin.com/uk
 Headphone splitters are ten-a-penny. This takes the concept way further, giving a total of five 3.5mm jacks for you and your pals to plug into.

Energenie Remote
 £9.99 energenie4u.co.uk
 Energenie's remotely controlled socket lets you turn gadgets on and off at the press of a remote button. No excuse for needlessly leaving kit on standby.

Kolay Memory Toy
 £9.99 kolayshop.co.uk
 Store files, music and photos in smile-inducing form with these cutesy USB sticks, available in various sizes (up to a £19.95 16GB version) and characters.

Sharkfin Self-Moulding Earbuds
 £4.99 amp3.co.uk
 A fraction under a fiver to pay for self-moulding, sweatproof, waterproof and UV-resistant earbuds? Sounds to us like a bit of a bargain.

Cygnett mobile cases
 from £9.99 cygnett.com
 Cygnett has a wide range of cases for the latest handsets. Classy, stylish and hard-wearing. What more do you want? Hmm?

Philips Sonicare DiamondClean

£250 philips.co.uk

This Rolls-Royce of toothbrushes fires sonic pulses to chip away plaque, hits 31,000 strokes a minute and beeps every 30 seconds so you switch to the next quadrant of your mouth. Travel case charges it via USB.

SEE ME AT STAND J1

Virgin TiVo 1TB

virginmedia.com

Sky+'s number one rival has the legs in terms of its on-demand offering and the speed of its fibre-optic broadband offering. There's not much in it in terms of price but TiVo's automated suggestions and bags of content make it a serious contender.

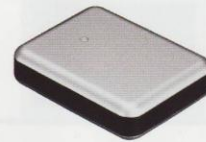

SEE ME AT STAND A1

Gemini JoyTAB 9.7in

£183 geminidevices.com

A budget Android tablet pitched toe-to-toe against its premium rivals, this JoyTAB's 9.7in display sets it apart from lesser devices. The capacitive touchscreen is responsive and its 16GB of storage is easily boosted to 32GB with a microSD card.

Just Mobile Gum Max

£100 apple.com/uk

This social lifesaver can bring iThings back from the brink of death – it's a USB-chargeable portable battery pack with a whopping 10,400mAh capacity, enough to juice a whole iPad, or an iPhone multiple times.

SEE ME AT STAND G21

Orbitsound T9

£200 orbitsound.com

TV-enhancing soundbar that makes scrawny modern sets sing where before they squawked. The connected subwoofer blasts out low frequencies and the iPod dock makes an already very good product into an excellent one.

JBL PowerUp for Nokia

£280 nokia.com

Portable speaker for the latest Nokia handsets with a bit of tech trickery up its sleeve: it hooks up to your phone via the magic of NFC (near-field communication) and charges it wirelessly at the same time.

Kindle Paperwhite

£109 amazon.co.uk

The Paperwhite offers the highest-res, highest-contrast display yet on a Kindle device and it includes a backlight, making it handy for passing the time in a blackout – or just being considerate to a bed partner who wants to sleep.

Nike+ FuelBand

£140 nike.com

Most fitness watches are ungainly lumps. But Nike has come up with this stylish LED bracelet, which logs footsteps, motion and speed to produce a 'Fuel' reading that you can monitor either on the bracelet or via a paired iPhone app.

SEE ME AT STAND M26

Energenie ChargeGenie 50

£35 energenie4u.co.uk

Portable power replenishment: a 5000mAh 'charge bank' with enough juice to save your smartphone (and you) from expiration three times over. Six adaptors allow it to fit most photo, Android and Apple kit.

iPad Mini

From £269 apple.com/uk

Essentially the iPad we all know and love but smaller, cheaper, lighter and even more useable. It's an iPad you can squeeze in your pocket without ripping the stitching. A slam-dunk for Cupertino's finest...

ISAW A2 Ace Action Cam

£240 roadpixel.com

No matter how you choose to cheat death on the weekends, this shock-resistant full-HD action cam laughs in the face of danger. The package includes waterproof housing, headband and handlebar mount.

Samsung Chromebook

From £229

google.com/chromebook Built around Google's Chrome OS, Samsung's cloud-based laptop breaks the mould but not the bank. It offers speed and almost limitless cloud storage so long as you can stay online.

Samsung Galaxy Tab 2 7.0
£169 samsung.com

Samsung offers Galaxy products from 4in to nearly 10in. Midway through the range is this: more expensive than its Google rival and minus the game-friendly Tegra chip but with a brighter, more colourful screen and 3G.

SEE ME AT STAND E31

PlayStation Wonderbook: Book of Spells £27 sony.co.uk

Make your wizard fantasies come true with this augmented-reality Rowling reading experience. You'll need a Move Controller and Eye Camera to use it, plus the nerve to shout 'Wingardium leviosa' without embarrassment.

SEE ME AT STAND G21

Orbitsound T12v3
£299 orbitsound.com

The Orbitsound T12v3 is by no means a subtle beast but this affordable soundbar and subwoofer combo packs a real punch to accompany the thrill of the latest action blockbuster. As well as connecting to the TV it includes a handy iPhone dock.

SEE ME AT STAND J11

GoPro HD Hero3
£360 gopro.com

The new GoPro action cam is 30% smaller, 25% lighter and twice as powerful compared to the earlier model. Given that the HD Hero2 is insanely well regarded, we suggest you make a beeline for stand J11 and check it out for yourself.

SEE ME AT STAND D1

LG BH8220B home cinema system
£277 lg.com/uk

Give your 3D Blu-ray viewing experience a bit more oomph courtesy of the LG BH8220B's 5.1 surround sound, Wi-Fi connectivity and external HDD feedback. Give it a listen – you know you want to.

Pure Sensia 200D Connect
£250 pure.com

Touchscreen-operated music streamer has DAB/FM and internet radio support plus the ability to stream content from other connected devices. Set it up on your Wi-Fi network and let it boss your home set-up.

Fujifilm X10
£417 fujifilm.eu/uk

SLR-like image quality meets classy retro styling. The X10 incorporates a lot of its bigger brother the X100's attributes in a more compact chassis, making it arguably a more complete camera for those looking to avoid the bulk of a modern SLR.

SEE ME AT STAND H11

Humax Freesat+ HDR-1000S
£260 freesat.co.uk

The subscription-free satellite service needed to respond to the on-demand TV services. This Humax adds to Freesat's usual subscription-free feast of 180 channels by letting you browse video from your PC via Wi-Fi.

5 under £20

Energenie portable charger/LED torch
£16 energenie4u.co.uk
Doubling its usefulness, this portable charger not only has adaptors for 90% of modern mobiles but can also serve as a torch.

SEE ME AT STAND H61

Angry Birds King Pig
£12 mattel.co.uk
Show allegiance to the evil swine of Rovio's mega-hit with this 'appcessory', which unlocks new game modes when placed on the screen of your iPad.

SEE ME AT STAND K1

Kolay USB Speaker
£20 kolayshop
A USB-charging portable speaker that will connect to smartphones or MP3 players and make a suitably sonorous din for a great price.

SEE ME AT STAND H61

Moshi Monsters
£13 waeplus.co.uk
Store assorted widgetry and paraphernalia in this charming Moshi Monsters backpack. Be warned, though: you must be a child to get away with it.

SEE ME AT STAND G28

3M Fingerprint-fading iPad screen protector
£13 3mselect.co.uk
Clever 3M tech makes fingerprint smears on your iPad screen a thing of the past. Check out the whole range over on stand G28.